Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2021-001323

Dear Kif Leswing (CNBC):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received in this office on September 2, 2021, in which you seek all documents, including the Initial Letter to Charged Party, Initial Letter to Charging Party, and Signed Charge Against Employer, in Apple Inc., Case No. 32-CA-282396. You assumed fees in the amount of $37.00, but also requested a fee waiver for the processing of this request.

We acknowledged your request on September 2, 2021. On September 3, 2021, your request for expedited processing was granted.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, the requested case has been identified as open before the Agency. Thus, I have determined certain records responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Here, Case No. 32-CA-282396 is open, pending an ongoing investigation before the Region into the allegations raised in the charge filed in the case.

In light of the open status of the requested case, your request is granted to the extent that I am providing you with the formal records in the case, which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations. Redactions have been made to portions of these records to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Your request is denied for any investigatory records contained in the open case file at this time, which here include an evidentiary cover letter submitted in support of the charge, on the basis that the release of any investigatory records at this time could harm or interfere with the ongoing investigation. As such, they will be withheld in full pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/32-CA-282396>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request. Given your placement as a news media requester, your request for a fee waiver is moot.

You may contact Marissa Wagner, the FOIA Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-2957 or by email at marissa.wagner@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Attorney, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the FOIA Public Liaison is:

Any appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 days of the date of this letter, such period beginning to run on the calendar day after the date of this letter. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based.

Please be advised that contacting any Agency official (including the FOIA Specialist, Attorney-Advisor, FOIA Officer, or the FOIA Public Liaison) and/or OGIS does not stop the 90-day appeal clock and is not an alternative or substitute for filing an administrative appeal.

Sincerely,

/s/ Synta E. Keeling
